Subject:- Acquisition of ~~Site~~ site in Survey
No.103/2 of Byrasandra Village.

I respectfully beg to bring ~~is~~ to your kind notice that I am served with an Award Notice in L.A.S.No.966/47-48⁴⁻²⁸⁻⁸⁻⁵² by the Special Land Acquisition Officer, City Improvement Trust Board, Bangalore stating that the site on which I have built a house is cancelled.
Thereupon, I represented to the Chairman, City Improvement Trust Board, Bangalore on 6th October 1952 and 28th January 1953 stating that on the site proposed to be acquired I have built a house and I am living in that house and that it would serve no public purpose by acquisition of this bit of land. The Chairman, City Improvement Trust Board, Bangalore after hearing my grievances was pleased to endorse me orally that he will look into the matter again and pass orders on the merit of the case.

I am a Police Constable and I cannot purchase a site if the present site which possesses a house is taken away by the Trust Board.
I belong to Bovi Community which is one of the sects of Scheduled castes. I am a poorman and I will be unable to purchase a site.

In these circumstances, I pray your goodself to be kind enough to set aside the acquisition proceedings in respect of site mentioned above and please order for the retention of that extent of site with the building to me. I learn some persons in Kankanpalya have been ordered to retain their sites. Two annas postage stamp for acknowledgement is herewith enclosed.

Hoping that my humble request will be fulfilled.

Yours most obediently,

To

Sir,

Subject:- Representation of Sri Muniswamappa--Acquisition of a site in S.No.103/2 of Byrasandra.

With reference to your letter No.L.3659/I.T.B.18-55-20 dated 2-7-1955 on the above subject, I write to state that the petitioner possessed a plot of land (unconverted) ~~xxx~~ - - measuring 30'x50' in the above Survey Number. The plot was acquired for formation of Jayanagar layout and an extent of 30'x20' has been made use of for the formation of 16th Cross Road. An award of Rs.96-3-9 for the petitioner's land has also been passed by the Special Land Acquisition Officer of the - - Board which the claimant did not choose to receive in spite of award notices. He had put up unauthorisedly a temporary structure on remaining plot of land for which T.T.fine of Rs.5/- was levied by the Revenue authorities. No compensation is admissible to this unauthorised construction. The petitioner has been urging to reconvey the land to him. The site is situated just in front of Bungalow sites already laid out. The Engineer Officer of the Board reports that the remaining extent of 30'x30' of land can be reconveyed to the party provided he pays the layout charges and conversion fine at Rs.4-12-0 per Sq.Yd. and also agrees to put up a decent building on the plot which is situated just in front of Bungalow sites.

An endorsement has accordingly been granted to the Party and further action will be taken on his paying the necessary layout charges which works out to Rs.475/-.

Yours faithfully,
